

Oh, Beethoven! lyrics

Chorus

Beeth-oh-ven, oh-oh Beeth-oh-ven.
Beeth-oh-ven, oh-oh Beeth-oh-ven.
Musical explosions! All the big emotions!
He made it new, made it true,
made this music just for you.

Verse 1

The year is sev'nteen-seventy and L.V.B. is born,
but Germany's not ready
for this human thunderstorm.

He learns the piano super quick and gets on with composing.
His handwriting's atrocious
(and his teachers say he's loathsome).

Chorus

Beeth-oh-ven, oh-oh Beeth-oh-ven.
Beeth-oh-ven, oh-oh Beeth-oh-ven.
Musical explosions! All the big emotions!
He made it new, made it true,
made this music just for you.

Verse 2

He looked like his music:
he had wild and massive hair,
with two unruly eyebrows
and a terrifying stare.

He liked a big, loud orchestra.
His symphonies did stir.
You prob'ly know his Number Five:
der-der-der DER.

Chorus, plus harmony

Beeth-oh-ven, oh-oh Beeth-oh-ven.
Beeth-oh-ven, oh-oh Beeth-oh-ven.
Musical explosions! All the big emotions!
He made it new, made it true,
made this music just for you.

Middle 8 rap

Storm and strife!
He made music with his life.
Never overrated
(just a little complicated).

Let's lose it for this music:
who's a fan of Ludwig van?
Let's keep the 'oh' in Beethoven, oh!

Verse 3

He loved a girl called Julie
But her Dad he said 'non-starter'.
So Ludwig just got sad and wrote his 'Moonlight' Sonata.

And when he lost his hearing,
'I'm all done' he could've said,
but he carried on composing and could hear it in his head.

Chorus, plus harmony

Beeth-oh-ven, oh-oh Beeth-oh-ven.
Beeth-oh-ven, oh-oh Beeth-oh-ven.
Musical explosions! All the big emotions!
He made it new, made it true,
made this music just for you.
